

Ice Bingo

Put your name or initials on the line in the blocks for the ice experiences you have had. Then find different people who have had other experiences and ask them to initial that box.

I have heard an ice cube crackle and pop! _____ (initials)	Ice is a mineral.	I have slipped on ice. _____ (initials)	Melting and freezing ice at Earth's poles helps make our ocean currents flow.	I have been ice skating. _____ (initials)
I have been snow skiing. _____ (initials)	I have had a snowball fight! _____ (initials)	Some of the ice on Mars is not made of frozen water ... it is frozen carbon dioxide – dry ice!	I have gotten my tongue stuck on ice. _____ (initials)	Sea ice in the north polar region has decreased by 40% in the last 40 years!
Comets have lots of ice – some scientists call comets “dirty snowballs!	I have been ice fishing. _____ (initials)	I have seen icicles hanging from a roof or tree. _____ (initials)	There may be ice at the poles of hot, hot, hot Mercury—the planet closest to our Sun!	I have made a snowperson. _____ (initials)
Polar bears and penguins do not live on the same continents.	I have had an ice cube tray that was not full of water overflow after freezing. _____ (initials)	When liquids freeze, they contract—or decrease in volume—except water, which EXPANDS when it turns to ice!	Antarctic ice is almost three miles thick in some places!	I have frozen a liquid that was not water. _____ (initials)