61547 - 18 grams
61548 - 24.2 grams
Devitrified Glass

Introduction
61547 and 61548 are chunks of devitrified glass that were collected by raking the regolith near large craters – see section on 61501. Thin sections show that they contain small clasts of plagioclase and feldspathic impact melt breccia.

Actually, there were a fair number of similar glass fragments at this location.

References for 61547 and 548

Ryder G. and Norman M.D. (1980) Catalog of Apollo 16 rocks (3 vol.). Curator’s Office pub. #52, JSC #16904