

Request for Community Comments on VEXAG's Venus Exploration Documents: Part II

The VEXAG Venus Exploration Documents, which were last updated in 2014, are being revised in anticipation of the next Planetary Science Decadal Survey. Drafts of each our updated draft Venus Exploration Documents are available for community assessment and comment via the VEXAG webpages at <https://www.lpi.usra.edu/vexag/> VEXAG strongly encourages of the planetary science community interested in Venus exploration to read the draft documents and provide feedback, comments, or suggestions for the revisions.

The second document released for public review comments is the Draft Venus Exploration Goals, Objectives, Investigations (GOI) at <https://www.lpi.usra.edu/vexag/reports/GOI-010219.pdf>.

Please send comments, suggestions, and feedback to noam.izenberg@jhuapl.edu including [VENUS GOI] in the email subject line.

In addition, VEXAG will host Virtual and Face-to-Face Townhalls in February and March 2019 for community comments. These are:

(1) A Virtual Townhall tentatively scheduled for Monday February 4, 2019

(Time and details to be announced)

(2) A Venus Document Townhall scheduled at the LPSC Venue (Woodland Waterways, Houston Texas) for Sunday March 17, 2019, before LPSC
